Strengthening Civil Society and Human Rights – Open Call for Community Participation

Dear Members, Partners, and Supporters,

The International Law and Treaty Control Agency (TTSKA) is committed to the advancement of human rights, international law oversight, and civil society empowerment across Europe and worldwide.

We invite you to:

- Join our community – Individuals and organizations interested in human rights, treaty compliance, and legal monitoring are welcome to participate in TTSKA activities and discussions.
- Contribute ideas and expertise – We encourage members and partners to propose new projects, submit feedback, and share expertise relevant to our mission.
- Participate in open events – TTSKA will be hosting a series of online forums, workshops, and community meetings on key issues such as human rights protection, anti-trafficking initiatives, and the legal implications of emerging technologies.
- Collaborate internationally – We are expanding our network of international partners and invite NGOs, experts, and institutions to connect and collaborate on joint initiatives.

Stay informed!

All public announcements, reports, and calls to action are published on our website:
